SEC Program Wins

15
40-Win Seasons

In its 21 seasons of existence, the Georgia softball program has made noise across the softball landscape. From three Women's College World Series appearances to three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the inaugural season in 1997, Georgia has accumulated 927 wins, including 316 in SEC action. A majority of those wins have come under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, who has collected 812 in her 17 years in the Classic City. The Bulldogs have had 40-win seasons in 15 of the 17 years under Harris-Champer, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends, but carries on into postseason action. The team chemistry of the 2016 squad carried the Bulldogs to Oklahoma City. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the Championship Game. The past 16 years have also seen Georgia in a NCAA Regional while appearing in nine Super Regionals, with 62 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.

With the 2018 season here, there may be a new squad in Athens, but the goals remain the same, and Georgia won't be quieting down any time soon.

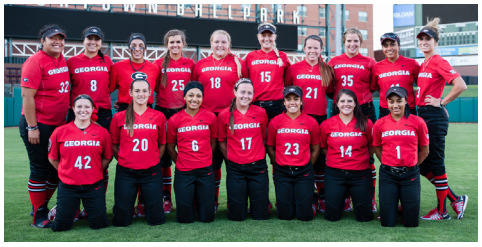
2009 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

2010 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES



2016 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from the Bulldogs accomplishments in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to an NCAA Regional in each of the past 16 seasons. Its stellar track record into the postseason slate puts Georgia as one of 14 teams in the nation to appear in a Regional for 16 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in nine Super Regionals since 2005.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both. The Bulldogs returned in 2016 after knocking off back-to-back National Champion Florida in dramatic walk-off fashion in the Super Regional.

The consistency that the Bulldogs have shown reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

PRO DAWGS

Former Bulldogs have made their presence known in the professional world, helping to grow the game across the nation.

Overall, 17 Bulldogs have gone on to play ball after their collegiate career. Since 2007, 10 Georgia players have been selected in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

In the 2017 season, Georgia had five past athletes represented on an NPF roster. Four of those former Bulldogs--Alisa Goler, Kristyn Sandberg, Taylor Schlopy and Megan Wiggins--have had noteworthy careers in the NPF, each earning league-wide accolades. Since Goler, Schlopy, and Wiggins entered the league in 2011, at least one of the four former Bulldogs has been named to the All-NPF Team. Alex Hugo became the fifth former player to join the NPF after a solid rookie season in 2016.

Former Georgia outfielder Sydni Emanuel was selected as the 16th overall pick of the 2017 National Pro Fastpitch Draft by the Akron Racers, becoming the latest ProDawg.

ABOUT THE NPF

National Pro Fastpitch is headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee. The league, created to give elite female fastpitch players the opportunity to pursue a professional career in their chosen sport, has operated since 1997 under the names of Women's Pro Fastpitch (WPF) and Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). NPF is the official Development Partner of Major League Baseball in the category of women's fastpitch softball since 2002.

JACK TURNER STADIUM

JACK TURNER STADIUM

The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The main grandstand holds approximately 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner, thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host nine NCAA Regionals and four NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugouts are connected via tunnel from the locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it, including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, as well as the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built featuring suites for radio, television, media, and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

JACK TURNER

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC, and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country, embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included:

Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Honor," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

GEORGIA
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
Endowed with 40,000 acres of land in 1784 and chartered in 1785, the charter was the first granted by a state for a government controlled university. After Louisville and then Greensboro were first selected, the current site was chosen.
The first president, and author of the school's charter, Abraham Baldwin, resigned when the doors opened, and was succeeded by Josiah Meigs. The University first began to thrive under Moses Waddel, who became president in 1819. Alonzo Church was president in 1829-1859.
During the War for Southern Independence, most of the students entered the Confederate Army. The University closed its doors in 1864, and did not open again until January 1866. After the war, many Confederate veterans became students.
Famous pre-war professors were John and Joseph LeConte and Charles F. McCay, while famous students were Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, Howell Cobb, and Crawford W. Long.
Plans for a modern university were first developed by Walter B. Hill and realized under Harmon W. Caldwell. The best known of the post-war presidents (now chancellors) was David C. Barrow. The builder of the modern plant was Chancellor Steadman V. Sanford.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

GEORGIA TRADITIONS

Uga

Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. Uga X, also known as Que, was collared during the 2015 football season.

The Arch

Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice and moderation.

Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues today even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore.

CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

2018 SEASON PREVIEW

The Georgia softball program will look to bounce back in 2018 following a campaign that saw the Bulldogs finish last in the Southeastern Conference a season ago. Despite finishing with a 6-18 conference record, the Bulldogs earned an at-large bid to their 16th-straight NCAA Tournament, appearing in the Tallahassee Regional and advancing to the championship contest against host Florida State.

The Bulldogs enter the new season picked to finish ninth in the SEC. While the roster is comprised of three-fourths underclassman, the program is excited for the future as the squad returns experienced talent. The 2018 campaign will be the 18th under head coach Lu Harris-Champer.

Georgia is returning a crop of 12 letterwinners from 2017 including five position starters and four pitchers. The Dawgs will be led by a formidable senior class in outfielders Cortni Emanuel and Kendall Burton along with pitcher Brittany Gray.

Emanuel, a preseason All-SEC selection, will look to record her third All-American season in a Bulldog uniform. Along with NFCA Third Team All-American honors, the Missouri City, Texas native added First Team All-Region and First Team All-SEC accolades to her 2017 resumé. The speedy outfielder ranks among Georgia's all-time bests in career batting average (.412), hits (240), on-base percentage (.448), and second in stolen bases with 121 behind the great Nicole Barber (257).

The 2017 season was Burton's first with the Georgia program following a transfer from UTSA. Burton appeared in 39 total contests, making 32 starts in the outfield. She contributed in all areas but most notably with four triples, six sacrifice bunts, and a perfect 8-for-8 in stolen bases.

Brittany Gray enters her senior campaign in the circle already ranking in a number of career categories including ERA (2.45), wins (44), appearances (106), games started (68), complete games (27), shutouts (14), saves (6), innings pitched (416.1), and strikeouts (361).

Along with the senior class is returning NFCA All-Region performer, junior Preseason All-SEC infielder Alyssa DiCarlo. The third baseman led the squad with her bat in 2017, leading in slugging percentage (.640) while knocking 13 home runs and driving in 64 RBI. Her run production ranked second-highest in the SEC and 15th-best in the country. DiCarlo's two-year .632 slugging percentage currently ranks fifth in Georgia's top-10 list.

The 2018 roster features a young crop of up-and-comers including 10 sophomores and six freshmen. Sophomores Ciara Bryan and Justice Milz each hit over .300 in their rookie campaigns. Bryan started 46 games as a freshman and ranked only behind the Emanuel sisters in stolen bases with 12 on the season. Fellow sophomore Mary Wilson Avant worked the third-most amount of innings in 2017 with 76 in 26 appearances and 10 starts in the circle. She went the distance twice with a pair of saves.

2018 SCHEDULE

Georgia will face off against 15 NCAA Tournament participants from a season ago including hosting the national runner-up and SEC rival Florida. Eight teams appearing on the schedule finished ranked in the top 25 with two in the top five.

The 56-game schedule features 36 games at Turner Softball Complex including three tournaments and four SEC series against Arkansas, Florida, Missouri, and Alabama. Midweek matchups feature Georgia Tech, Western Carolina, Bucknell, Georgia Southern, Kennesaw State, Georgia State, and USC-Upstate. Mercer is also set to come to Athens for a non-conference series.

Georgia opens the 2018 season in Tempe, Arizona as part of the Kajikawa Classic. Of UGA's five opponents in Tempe, four were NCAA Tournament participants in 2017 including Oregon, Utah, BYU, and Oregon State.

HEAD COACH

LU HARRIS-CHAMPER

22ND SEASON OVERALL (1,021-372-1)
18TH SEASON AT GEORGIA (812-308)

Lu Harris-Champer has become the architect of Georgia softball, building the Bulldogs into a nationally-recognized, championship-caliber program. Entering her 18th year at the helm in the 2018 season, Harris-Champer has guided Georgia to 16-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, two Southeastern Conference Championships, one SEC Tournament Championship, nine NCAA Super Regional showings, and three trips to the Women's College World Series.

Harris-Champer is 812-308 in her time with the Bulldogs which includes a 278-177 record in the SEC. She has also established Georgia as one of the elite programs in the nation. Under her guidance, Georgia has had 26 NFCA All-Americans, 13 Easton All-Americans, 70 All-SEC recognitions, 61 NFCA All-Region selections, 21 SEC All-Tournament honorees, 29 SEC Players of the Week, 28 SEC Pitchers of the Week, 20 SEC Freshmen of the Week, one SEC Player of the Year, two SEC Pitchers of the Year, one SEC Freshman of the Year, and has been named the SEC Coach of the Year twice.

Under her leadership, Georgia has been equally impressive off of the field. In her 17 seasons at the helm, Georgia has had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, 94 members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, 32 members of the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll, 14 players named to the SEC Community Service Team and five players inducted into the UGA Student-Athlete Leadership Academy.

Harris-Champer became a member of an elite group of collegiate head softball coaches on Feb. 25, 2017 when she recorded her 1,000th-career victory with a 6-4 win over Cal State-Fullerton in her home state of California.

In 2017, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to Georgia's 16th-consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning a trip to the Regional final against host Florida State. The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the team batting title in the SEC with a .338 average and finishing with the fifth-best clip in the country. Three Bulldogs were honored as All-SEC including All-American outfielder Cortni Emanuel.

Outfielder Sydni Emanuel became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as a the 16th overall pick of the 2017 National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

The 2016 season was a magical one for Georgia softball and Harris-Champer, as the season ended with in the program's third appearance at the Women's College World Series. After an early exit in the SEC Tournament, the Bulldogs entered postseason with a vengeance, taking the crown at the Athens Regional before bouncing back-to-back national champion Florida with a shutout win in game one and a Kaylee Puailoa walk-off home run in game two to secure their spot in Oklahoma City.

At season's end, Georgia had a 46-20 record, including 12-12 in SEC play. Eight Bulldogs hit over .300 for the year, guiding the team to a program-best .342 batting average. Tina Iosefa set an SEC and school record for most RBI in a season with 87 on her way to earning NFCA All-America honors. Four student-athletes garnered NFCA All-Region awards while seven made it to an All-SEC Team, including freshman Alyssa DiCarlo to the first team as she posted 63 RBI for the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

Harris-Champer and Georgia finished the 2015 season with an overall record of 44-17 that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC. Following the regular season, the Bulldogs earned the No. 14 seed in the NCAA Tournament where the team fought its way back from a 14-inning loss to WKU to win the next three games, outscoring its opponents 35-8. As a team offensively, Georgia set several program records. The 2015 hitters posted program-best marks in batting average (.343), runs scored (440) and on-base percentage (.420). The 554 hits were the fourth most in program-history and the most since 2006, while the 380 RBI was the second-highest mark in school history and the best since 2011. The pitching staff finished with its lowest team ERA since 2012.

In addition to the team accomplishments, the Bulldogs had several players earn individual awards. Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel highlighted the award season, as each earned NFCA All-America honors. Emanuel was also a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball Freshman of the Year. Georgia put seven players on the NFCA All-Region team and had five All-SEC selections.

In her 14th season with the Bulldogs, Harris-Champer led the team to unprecedented heights when the team won the 2014 SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs beat eventual national champion Florida and national runner-up Alabama in the tournament before handing Kentucky a 5-2 loss to claim the title. It was the first-ever tournament title for the Bulldogs. With the win, Georgia earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time. The SEC Tournament title propelled the team to a No. 4 national seed, allowing it to host both the Regional and Super Regional. Georgia finished the year with a 49-15 record that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. In addition to the team successes, Harris-Champer coached several players to individual honors. Hugo, the 2014 NCAA Home Run Champion, was named a First Team NFCA All-American, to the All-SEC First Team, the All-SEC Tournament Team and the All-Southeast Region team. Chelsea Wilkinson was recognized as a Second Team All-American, the SEC Tournament MVP, a member of the All-Southeast Region Team, the All-SEC team and was named the SEC Pitcher of the Week twice. Additionally, Paige Wilson was an All-Southeast Region selection and named to the All-SEC and SEC All-Tournament team. In all, the Bulldogs had seven members named to the All-Southeast Region team, as Tina Iosefa, Geri Ann Glasco, Samantha LaZear and Anna Swafford each earned the honor.

In 2013, Harris-Champer led Georgia to its 12th NCAA Tournament. The 2013 Bulldogs finished the season with a 40-21 record that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC, seven wins over teams ranked in the top-25, sweeps of four SEC series and a two-game sweep of Georgia Tech. Harris-Champer coached four players to All-SEC honors, as Wilson and Kaylee Puailoa were each named First Team All-SEC and Glasco, Puailoa, and Wilkinson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Glasco was named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, marking the first time in program history that a Georgia player received Freshman of the Year honors. Wilson and Wilkinson were also named to the SEC All-Tournament team. In addition to All-SEC honors, Puailoa, Glasco, and Wilson were also named the NFCA All-Region Teams, with Glasco going on to earn Third Team NFCA All-America honors.

The 2012 season marked the 11th time that Harris-Champer has led a Bulldog softball squad to the NCAA postseason and the sixth time that Georgia advanced to a NCAA Super Regional. With a record of 45-17 that included a 17-11 mark in the SEC, the 2012 squad spent the majority of the season ranked among the top-15 teams in the nation and earned 13 wins over team ranked in the top-25. In the NCAA Tournament, Georgia was awarded the 10th overall national seed. The Bulldogs swept the NCAA Athens Regional field, marking the sixth time that the team has claimed a regional title and advanced to the Knoxville Super Regional. Harris-Champer coached Kristyn Sandberg to First Team All-SEC honors, while Erin Arevalo was named to the All-SEC second team and Paige Wilson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team. In addition to conference honors, Sandberg and Arevalo earned All-American status, with Sandberg appearing on the second team and Arevalo earning a spot on the third team.

Harris-Champer's 2011 team posted a 51-14 overall record and advancing to the NCAA Super Regional round of play. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 17-9 and finished third in the Eastern Division and also made a run to the championship game in the SEC Tournament. Georgia spent four weeks during the 2011 season ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association poll and one week atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, which marked the first No. 1 rankings in school history. Harris-Champer led three Bulldogs to All-American honors, as Alisa Goler and Megan Wiggins were selected to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America Second Team. Goler and Taylor Schlopy were named Lowe's Senior CLASS All-Americans, while Goler was a Top 25 Finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2010, Harris-Champer's Georgia squad posted a 50-13 overall record, advancing to the WCWS where they went 2-2 and reached the final four. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-8 and finished second in the Eastern Division. In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/NFCA poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll. Under Harris-Champer's guidance, Goler and Schlopy earned second-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors, while Schlopy also garnered ESPN.com All-America recognition and was named a top-25 finalist for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2009, Harris-Champer's Bulldogs were tabbed the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year after going 47-12 and advancing to their first-ever Women's College World Series appearance, where they went 3-2 and were one of the final four teams standings. The Bulldogs finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game), and 10th in batting average (.319). In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-7 to finish second in the Eastern Division and third overall. Georgia tied for the league lead in triples with 17 and its national-leading fielding percentage was the third-best in SEC history. Georgia finished the season ranked fourth in both the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN.com/USA Softball final polls. Goler and Schlopy were named First Team All-Americans. Goler was also a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy was chosen to the USA Softball Japan Cup Team and helped the Americans win Gold.

In 2008, the Georgia softball program finished with an overall record of 46-24, an SEC mark of 14-14 (3rd Eastern Division) and advanced to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Softball Championship. With an 18-player roster consisting of fifty percent freshmen and 12 underclassmen, the prospect of what to expect from the onset of the season was uncertain. The Bulldogs finished the season ranked No. 17 by USA Today/NFCA and No. 18 by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Harris-Champer recorded and surpassed 600 collegiate career coaching victories in 2008 as well as achieving and surpassing 400 wins at Georgia in her eight seasons with the team.

The Bulldogs concluded their 2007 campaign with an appearance in the championship game of the NCAA Lincoln Regional. The Bulldogs posted a 46-28 overall record and a 13-15 mark in conference action. Kellie Middleton became a two-time All-American after earning Second Team honors from Easton, which marked the sixth-consecutive year in which a Bulldog earned All-America honors.

Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs captured their third Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title en route to posting its fifth-consecutive season of 54 or more wins in 2006. Overall, UGA tallied a 54-15 record and earned a berth in the NCAA Regionals. Harris-Champer secured her 500th career win on April 2 with a victory over Ole Miss. At the conclusion of the season, Georgia also set a school record after three student-athletes (Kellie Middleton, Jessica Doucette and Megan McAllister) earned All-America distinctions in 2006.

The 2005 season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Bulldogs as they earned their second conference championship in three years while appearing in the championship game of an NCAA Super Regional. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, Georgia posted a 26-4 record in Southeastern Conference play, tying the second-best mark in conference history. Michelle Green and Kim Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor as well.

The Bulldogs concluded the 2004 season with an appearance in the championship game of a NCAA Regional. The Bulldogs finished the season in the top-20 in several national statistics, including a third-place finish in team batting average (.329), sixth-place ranking in fielding percentage (.974), and a seventh-place finish in runs per game (5.72).

In 2003, the Bulldogs clinched the program's first SEC crown and earned its second-consecutive appearance in the NCAA Regionals, capturing two wins in the tournament. At the conclusion of the 2003 season the Bulldogs led the SEC in 18 categories and were second in five more. Georgia tied two NCAA records, four SEC records, and established 35 new Georgia records.

Harris-Champer took Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Softball Tournament in 2002, compiling a 59-17 record. The 59 wins ranked as the second-best in the nation in 2002. Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs started their season with a 24-game winning streak. By the end of the regular season, Georgia had finished second in both the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the Conference Tournament. Nicole Barber and Kim Wendland became Georgia's first two All-Americans in softball and were also named First Team All-SEC. Barber became the NCAA record holder for consecutive steals with 73.

In 2001, Harris-Champer helped Georgia to a 33-win season while setting several team records along the way. She also picked up sweeps against Georgia Tech and Florida, and taking two of three from Tennessee.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Harris-Champer spent three seasons as the head coach at Southern Miss where she led the Lady Eagles to two Women's College World Series appearances. For her efforts in the 1999 season, Harris-Champer was named the 1999 South Region Coach of the Year. In addition to her honors, Southern Miss pitcher Courtney Blades won the 2000 Honda Broderick Award as the nation's top player.

In 1997, Harris-Champer served as head coach of the Orlando Wahoos of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League. She led Orlando to a 60-13 record and earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding her team to regular-season and tournament titles.

Harris-Champer was head coach at Nicholls State in 1996 and 1997, leading the school to impressive records of 46-19-1 and 48-23, respectively. She also helped the team to a pair of NCAA Regional berths, a Southland Conference regular-season and tournament championship, as well as the finals of the NCAA Regional. Harris-Champer was tabbed 1996 Southland Conference and South Region Coach of the Year and finished third in National Coach of the Year balloting.

Prior to her stint at Nicholls, Harris-Champer spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Western Illinois. During that span, the Westerwinds were 156-98, won the 1992 Gateway Conference tournament, the 1993 Mid-Continent Conference regular-season and tournament crowns and the 1996 Mid-Continent Conference West Division title.

A native of San Diego, California, Harris-Champer played three seasons at Western Illinois after transferring from Mesa (Calif.) Community College. She is married to Jerry Champer, the Associate Head Coach for the seven-time national championship Georgia swimming and diving team.

Lu and Jerry have three children: Twins Jenna & Emma, born Aug. 2, 2004, and Mya, born May 23, 2006.

TONY BALDWIN

Associate Head Coach
Fourth Season
Butler '95

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014 before being promoted to associate head coach shortly after the 2016 season. Baldwin will be in his fourth season entering the 2018 campaign.

Georgia's offense has found successful production since Baldwin's arrival. The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the Southeastern Conference team batting title with a .338 batting average, 22 points higher than second-place Tennessee. That figure ranked fifth-best in the country. Sydni and Cortni Emanuel concluded the season as top-four hitters in the conference, finishing with .436 and .426 batting averages respectively. The sisters' 2017 batting average rank fourth and fifth in Georgia's single-season top-10 list. Sydni became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as the 16th-overall pick of the National Pro Fastpitch Draft. Cortni was named an NFCA All-American for the second-straight season in 2017.

In 2016, Georgia had its second-best batting average in school history, hitting .342 with eight Bulldogs holding a .300 or better average on its way to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. After a tough offseason of individual work with Baldwin, many individuals put up stellar numbers. Tina Iosefa led the nation while breaking the SEC record with 87 RBI during the season, earning her NFCA All-America honors. Alyssa DiCarlo was named to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman after hitting nine of her 11 home runs against SEC opponents and notching 63 RBI on the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

In his first season back, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top-100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

Before returning to Athens, Baldwin was an assistant coach at North Carolina. Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC Team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia as volunteer coach, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth College, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator, and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001, and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1994-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers, and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998, and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Indiana, Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-12.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children, Ella, Abby, Brady, and Katie.

RACHELE FICO

Assistant Coach
Third Season
LSU '13

With a career that boasts accolades of two-time National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American honors and the top draft pick in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft, former LSU standout Rachele Fico joined the Georgia softball staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2016 season.

Under Fico's tutelage, Brittany Gray ranked among one of the top pitchers in the Southeastern Conference during the 2017 campaign. The junior held opponents to a .190 batting average in 168 innings of work in the circle. She recorded her second-straight season of 100+ strikeouts, finishing with 134.

In her first year with the Bulldogs, Fico helped the pitching staff to a 2.27 ERA, as the team collected 46 wins. Leading the way was NFCA All-Region selection Chelsea Wilkinson, who led the SEC with 28 victories, including a shutout win in game one of the Gainesville Super Regional to guide the Bulldogs to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. Along with Wilkinson's 219 strikeouts, Brittany Gray notched 100+ strikeouts on the season while Kylie Bass sported a 1.25 ERA, one of the best in the nation.

Fico served as an assistant coach at top-25 program South Alabama during the 2015 season where the Jaguars took the Sun Belt Conference crown and advanced to its fourth-straight NCAA Regional. Under Fico's guidance, the USA pitching staff held a 2.51 ERA that was top 30 in the NCAA while the trio of pitchers was each in the top 150 individually.

Outside of ERA, Fico helped freshman Devin Brown rank fourth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings (10.9) and senior Farish Beard finish seventh in the NCAA in hits allowed per seven innings (4.04). Beard and freshman Kalen McGill earned All-SBC honors.

The Oxford, Connecticut, native was the No. 1 overall draft pick out of college, playing the last five seasons with the NPF's Akron Racers. An All-NPF Team selection in 2014, Fico has pitched over 270 innings on her way to 21 wins during her professional career.

While at LSU, Fico was a two-time NFCA First Team All-American, three-time NFCA All-South Region First Team member, and three-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree. Fico still holds the record for most strikeouts in a game, tallying 22 against Mississippi State on Mar. 8, 2013.

During her freshman season with the Tigers in 2010, Fico was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year in addition to making the All-SEC Freshman and Defensive Team lists. A year later, she led her club to the 2011 NCAA College Station Regional where the Tigers ultimately fell to Syracuse, but not before the right-handed hurler earned a spot on the All-Regional Team behind an 18-strikeout performance against the Orange, a feat which tied for second-most in LSU history.

Fico also brings Women's College World Series experience after leading the Tigers to Oklahoma City as a junior in 2012 when she earned both wins over No. 9 national seed Missouri at the NCAA Columbia Super Regional. Prior to that, she was unanimously named the NCAA College Station Regional MVP after compiling back-to-back shutouts versus Texas State and No. 8 national seed Texas A&M.

Fico completed her collegiate career among LSU's top-five in appearances (149), starts (104), complete games (82), innings pitched (774.0), wins (78), saves (8), opposing batting average (.195), shutouts (32), strikeouts (797) and strikeouts per seven innings (7.21).

BROCK VAN FAUSSIEN

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
Liberty '97

Brock Van Faussien joins the Georgia softball staff in 2018 as the program's volunteer assistant coach. Van Faussien brings collegiate baseball coaching experience with him to Athens.

In 2015, Van Faussien was part of the baseball staff at Southeastern Louisiana University when the Lions won the Southland Conference Regular Season Championship, setting a school record for wins in a season with 42.

A member of the coaching staff at Liberty from 2001-02, Van Faussien helped the Flames to a pair of 30-plus win seasons and appearances in the Big South Conference Tournament.

Van Faussien spent three seasons working in collegiate summer leagues, serving on the staffs of the Edenton Steamers (1998) and Durham Americans (2002) of the Coastal Plains League, and the Orleans Cardinals (2001) in the prestigious Cape Cod League. Current Los Angeles Dodger catcher A.J. Ellis was a member of that Durham Americans squad.

He served as a graduate assistant baseball coach at Clemson from 1998-99 helping the Tigers to an NCAA Regional appearance in 1998, and a Super Regional appearance at Texas A&M in 1999. During his time at Clemson, Van Faussien worked with future Major Leaguer Khalil Greene, the 2002 Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award winner.

A student assistant during his undergrad days at Liberty, Van Faussien was part of the crew that won the Big South Tournament and went on to the Atlantic Regional at Georgia Tech. He also earned the STMA / sportsTURF / Beam Clay 1997 College Baseball Diamond of the Year for the Flames' Al Worthington Stadium in his time there.

Van Faussien earned his Bachelor's Degree in Sport Management at Liberty in 1997. He lives in Griffin, Georgia with his wife, Reba, and daughter, Charlotte Sue.

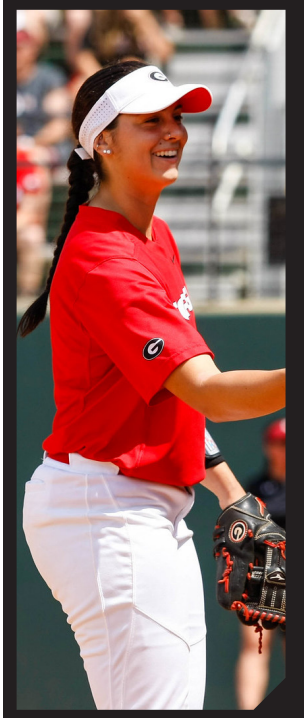
Five Things to Know…

2017 SEASON REVIEW

CORTNI EMANUEL HAS SECOND ALL-AMERICAN CAMPAIGN

Outfielder Cortni Emanuel was named an NFCA Third Team All-American following her junior season at Georgia. She added NFCA First Team All-Region and First Team All-SEC to her list of 2017 accolades. She ranked 28th nationally in batting average (.426), 14th in hits (80), and 10th in stolen bases (43). Following the season, she has already cracked Georgia's career top-10 list in batting average (.412), hits (240), and stolen bases (121).

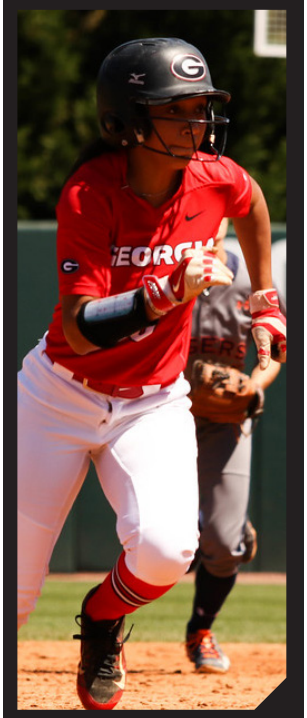


DICARLO'S BAT PROVIDES POP IN BULLDOG LINEUP

Third baseman Alyssa DiCarlo picked up NFCA Third Team All-Region and Second Team All-SEC honors in 2017. DiCarlo led the squad in slugging with a .640 clip, good enough for sixth in the SEC. She knocked 13 home runs, fourth-most in the league with the second-highest total of RBI with 64. Her RBI figure ranked 15th in the country while recording 17 multi-RBI contests. The power hitter also hit for a high .360 average. She has driven in 60 or more runs in both seasons as a Bulldog.

HARRIS-CHAMPER RECORDS 1,000th-CAREER WIN

Head coach Lu Harris-Champer recorded her 1,000th-career victory on Feb. 25 with a 6-4 over Cal State Fullerton at the Mary Nutter Classic in Cathedral City, California. She is one of 22 NCAA Division I head coaches to reach the 1,000-win plateau in their careers. Following the 2017 season, she ranks 13th among active Division I coaches with 1,021 wins.



SYDNI EMANUEL DRAFTED BY AKRON RACERS

Following a stellar three-year career in a Bulldog uniform, outfielder Sydni Emanuel was drafted by the Akron Racers in the National Pro Fastpitch draft. She was the 16th overall pick of the draft. Emanuel finished her career playing in 171 games with a.432 career batting average. Her three-year batting average set a new UGA record while she ranks 10th in runs (151), eighth in hits (243), fourth in on-base percentage (.476), and tied for seventh among the toughest to strike out.

BULLDOGS PUNCH TICKET TO 16th-CONSECUTIVE NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Bulldogs kept their NCAA Tournament appearance streak alive, extending it to 16-consecutive seasons after earning an at-large bid to the Tallahassee Regional. Georgia is one of 14 teams to appear in 16-straight Regionals and one of only three in the Southeastern Conference.
